Details

1. 5018 HIGH ROAD (South Side) EASTCOTE High Grove House TQ 1088 10/477 II 2. Built in 1881 by E S Prior for Sir Hugh and Lady Juliana Hume-Campbell, to replace an earlier house on the site, destroyed by fire. An early example of Queen Anne - Early Georgian revival. Drawing exhibited Royal Academy 1882. Two storeys and attic. L-shaped house with Southern service extensions and a two-storey projecting diagonal porch set in the angle, which presages Prior's later development of the "butterfly" plan, also implied by the one-storey and attic end wings. Red brick, very high quality work with gauged brick window arches, some rusticated into voussoirs; and some framing of windows in short classical order with little shaped gables over in Carolean style. High pitched hipped swept tiled roofs with tall gabled dormers. Modillion eaves cornice with the modillions set diagonally in the porch bay. Garden front of three, three and three windows, half-octagonal outer bays. Later C18 style plastered rooms inside.
