Dear Mr Biek

Thank you for your final comments.

Whilst we will retain the revised drawing on our file, it will be for the Inspector to decide whether it should be taken into account.

Regards

Nicholas Patch

Dear Mr Patch

Please find attached a copy of the Appellant's Final Comments with reference to this appeal. We have also attached a scale-able copy of SK3A which has been updated following confirmation of the requirement of the Council to demonstrate full compliance with Part M4(2). We also include a copy of the Council's Domestic Vehicle Footway Crossover Policy (April 2019) which has been referenced in their Statement of Case and which we are not certain has been provided to you.

Copies of the Final Comments and SK3A have been forwarded directly to Katherine Mills of Planning Appeals/LB Hillingdon.

We would be grateful for a simple confirmation of receipt of this submission.

Kind regards
Jim Biek

Dear Mr Biek

I have just sent the 5-week representations to you under separate cover.

There has been no delay in sending the representations. Today is the earliest that they could have been sent to you as representations could still be submitted up to 23:59 on 4 August.

Dear Nicholas Patch

We write to enquire whether Hillingdon Council have submitted their Statement of Case and copies of any representations made by Interested Parties for this appeal. The deadline for this submission was yesterday 4th August, and no documents have been forwarded directly to me as Agent for the Appellant. We are particularly concerned by any delay at this stage given that the deadline for us to prepare any final comments is now under 2 weeks away.

Kind regards
Jim Biek
