D. Notes for guidance on your costs application – please read before going ahead

Appellants, local planning authorities and anyone else involved with the appeal (the parties) are normally expected to cover their own expenses. But anyone involved in the appeal can ask the Secretary of State or appointed Inspector to order that one party pays some or all of another party's costs. Before agreeing to this, we will have to be sure that:

- the person applying was put to unnecessary or wasted expense in the appeal
- because of the unreasonable behaviour of the other party.

An award can only be made if both these tests are met.

Please write (in section E) how you think the other party has acted unreasonably and what expense this has caused you. Please note that only the unnecessary or wasted costs of the appeal itself can be recovered by an award.

Before going ahead with an application, your attention is drawn to The National Planning Practice Guidance web-based resource, which contains advice on the award of costs, in the Appeals section.

While there is no formal procedure or application form for making an application for costs you can use the template (below) to make an application for costs in writing.

The decision on your application will not go into the actual amount of costs involved – only the principle and, if an award is made, what the award is broadly for. So there is no need to state the actual amounts you are seeking. If an award is made, the parties will need to settle the amounts involved between them by negotiation; or, if that fails, by applying to the Senior Courts Costs Office for an independent decision on the matter.

When using the costs application form, to give advance notice of a costs application in a hearing or inquiry case, please send a copy of your completed application to the other party.

Please also note there are time limits for making a costs

Application depending on the procedure for deciding the appeal. The Award of Costs Guidance provides relevant information.

E. Your costs application

Please state whether you are applying for a full or partial award of costs and what you think is:

- the unreasonable behaviour which has caused you unnecessary or wasted expense in the appeal

As set out in the Grounds of Appeal the LPA failed to originally register the application in good time and then followed this up without responding to email or telephone attempts to contact them. Both emails and telephone calls were accepted as received by the LPA and in the case of the latter, an email receipt was received saying that they would provide a response within 5 working days. Unfortunately however no responses were received.

The decision date due for the application was 11th August but no decision was received and further contact with the LPA remained unanswered.

There was no other alternative to get a decision other than to lodge the appeal which was done on 16th September.

We believe that this complete lack of response constitutes unreasonable behaviour. More details, including copies of emails have been provided within the Grounds of Appeal.

- your unnecessary or wasted expense in the appeal (not the amount, but the kind of expense)

The appeal should not have been necessary if the LPA had engaged during the course of the planning application. The wasted expenses are therefore involved within the chasing of the LPA and the production of the appeals.
