Dear sir / madam. The members of the institute have been using other forms of transport than their own cars to avoid any kind of parking problem on site or on the road. They have been using public transport like buses and taxis. Cycles and drop off by a friend is another source of transportation. No one needs a parking on site. All they are looking for is extended hours specially on the weekends and ramadan time. Please find attached the signed papers from the members.

Discharge of Conditions

Please provide a full description and/or list of the materials/details that are being submitted for approval
