

TRIAL HOLE EXCAVATED AT 500mm WIDE

TRIAL HOLE EXCAVATED AT
650mm FROM EXISTING RAILINGS

TRIAL HOLE EXCAVATED AT
600mm DEPTH
SHOWING NO PENETRATION TO TREE ROOTS.

|                                                                                                                                       |                                         |                     |      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|---------------------|------|
| Client                                                                                                                                | MRS MANISHA THAKRAR                     |                     |      |
| LONDON INTERIORS UNIT 8 BOWMAN TRADING ESTATE WESTMORELAND ROAD LONDON NW9 9RL |                                         |                     |      |
| Project                                                                                                                               | 15 NICHOLAS WAYNORTHWOODHA6 2TR |                     |      |
| DrawingTitle                                                                                                                      | EXISTING SITE TRIAL HOLE                |                     |      |
| DrawingTitle                                                                                                                      | PR20-103h                               |                     | Rev. |
| Drawn By:C.P.                                                                                                                     | Scale:1/100                         | Date:15/04/2024 |      |