Given the street scene I think it would be a bit churlish of us to be too worried about the height of a bungalow going up by 0.7m:-

And the resulting development would look significantly better than a PD hip to gable loft conversion-

If you wanted to give us a real run for your money you could try the Class AA Prior Approval for an extra storey-not that we've approved one yet-as the bungalows were 1950s and after the 1948 cut-off.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
