

This aerial map illustrates the study area, including the proposed development site, existing buildings, roads, and landscaping. The map shows a large yellow rectangular area representing the proposed development, situated adjacent to a road and existing buildings. A red line indicates the boundary of the study area. The map also shows a parking lot with several cars, a bus stop, and a small building with a blue roof. The map is oriented with North at the top.