Dear Mrs Bernard

Apologies for the delay in getting back to you. Mr Hirani was in the office yesterday and we had a discussion about the proposal and a look on 'Streetview' etc. His opinion is the same as mine, that with the set in from the side boundary, set-back from the front porch and appropriate design as an annexe, that the extension is likely to be considered favourably and planning permission granted. This is of course subject to the application process.

If you need any further information, please come back to me.

Dear Mr Allum

Further to your email below, could you advise when any comments may be available?

Many thanks

Kind regards

Dear Mrs Bernard

I refer to our phone conversation earlier and again apologise for the delay in getting back to you.

The revised proposal now shows a significant inset from the boundary and reduces the impact on both the street scene and the original house. This is a better scheme in order to comply with our design policies. In order to get another opinion on the proposal, I have emailed our development manager Meghji Hirani and will aim to speak with him on Monday. I will let you know of any comments as soon as I can.

I hope this is of help.
