Grounds for Application

Information about the existing use(s)

Please explain why you consider the existing or last use of the land is lawful, or why you consider that any existing buildings, which it is proposed to alter or extend are lawful

The existing property is a lawful three bedroom single dwellinghouse with an established lawful residential use. the proposed development consists of rear dormer loft conversion and associated rooflights to the existing dwelling house. No change of use is proposed, and the property will remain a single dwellinghouse following completion of the works. the existing building is lawful, and it is considered that the proposed development falls within the provision for permitted development under schedule 2,part1 ,class b of the General permitted development (England) order 2015 (as amended).

Please list the supporting documentary evidence (such as a planning permission) which accompanies this application the application is supported by the following documents.

1. existing and proposed architectural drawings (plans and elevations).
2. section proposed plan.
- 3.site location plan.
- 4.. lawful development certificate application form.
- 5.ownership certificate.
6. the appropriate application fee.

there is no relevant planning permission or other planning decision being relied upon in the support of this application.

Select the use class that relates to the existing or last use.

Information about the proposed use(s)

Select the use class that relates to the proposed use.

C3 - Dwellinghouses

Is the proposed operation or use

- ☒ Permanent
☐ Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

A lawful development certificate should be granted because the proposal relates to a lawful single dwellinghouse (use class C3) and consists of a rear dormer loft conversion and associated roof alterations. no change of use is proposed , and the property will remain a single dwellinghouse.

it is considered that the proposed development under schedule 2, part 1, class b of the town and country planning (General permitted development) (England) order 2015 (as amended). the proposal is designed to comply with the relevant limitations and conditions for roof enlargements to dwellinghouses.

accordingly, planning permission is not required, and a lawful development certificate sought to confirm the lawfulness of the proposed development.
