- roof be more than 7 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof (not including existing plant); or
- total height exceed 30 metres (not including plant)

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4. Eligibility (continued)

Will any proposed engineering operations reasonably necessary to construct the additional storeys and new dwellinghouses include:

- provision of visible support structures on or attached to the exterior of the building upon completion of the development; or
- anything other than works within the existing curtilage of the building to strengthen existing walls; strengthen existing foundations; or install or replace water, drainage, electricity, gas or other services;

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will any works for the replacement of existing plant or installation of additional plant on the roof of the extended building reasonably necessary to service the new dwellinghouses include:

- Installation of plant where none currently exists; or
- Increasing the height of any installed plant (i.e. as measured before and after from the lowest surface of the roof on the principal part of the building)

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will any works for the construction of appropriate and safe access and egress to the new and existing dwellinghouses (including means of escape from fire, via additional external doors or external staircases) extend beyond the curtilage of the existing building?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will any works for the construction of storage, waste or other ancillary facilities reasonably necessary to support the new dwellinghouses:

- extend beyond the curtilage of the existing building;
- be situated on land forward of a wall forming the principal elevation of the existing building; or
- be situated on land forward of a wall fronting a highway and forming a side elevation of the existing building

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.
