Details of the pre-application advice received

It very much looks as though there was a "catch-all" condition attached to the original planning permission for the estate that takes away permitted development rights for extensions and alterations to the houses, so all of the works would require planning permission.

I would be surprised if the conservatory and garage change were that controversial

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
