Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The extension brings the office's front wall forward by 1.5m, so that it lines up exactly with the front of the existing porch. It is 1.5m deep and about 2.45m wide, adding roughly3.7 sq m of floor space.

The extension fills the recess between the porch and the flank wall. The details are:
1) Roof: a flat roof and fascia continuing the existing flat roof of the office at the sameheight.
2) Walls: render to match the existing walls.
3) Front entrance: a new front door in the extension, with a clear opening of at least850mm, reached by a gently sloping ramp with handrail. This gives step-free access forelderly family members and wheelchair users.
4) Flank: no new side windows.

Has the work already been started without consent?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
