Subject: 52 Thornhill Road Ickenham,

Dear Team,

Please find attached a planning application for a front porch, normally this type of application is adequately covered by PD rights however in this instance it has to be larger for the sole reason that it is for medical reasons.

I believe that in this case the planning application fee is waived and I have provided evidence of this in the first attachment above?

Any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards
