

Planning Application - Statement of Ownership - Guidance Notes

If you are NOT the sole owner (defined in the "statement of owner's rights" below) of all the land to which the application relates, you should take one of the following courses of action.

- 1.1 If you know the names and addresses of all the owners of the land to which the application relates, you should give to each of them a notice using a completed copy of the form below, and complete Certificate B overleaf.
- 1.2 If you know the names and addresses of some of the owners of the land to which the application relates, but not all of them, you should give notice, using a completed copy of the form below, to those whose names and addresses you know, and publicise the application in a local newspaper - also using the form below. The newspaper notice should be published not earlier than the day 21 days before the date of application. You should then complete Certificate C overleaf.
- 1.3 If you do not know the names and addresses of any of the owners of the land to which the application relates you should publicise the application in a local newspaper using a completed copy of the form below. This notice should be published not earlier than the day 21 days before the date of the application. You should then complete Certificate D overleaf.
2. If the answer to question 2 of Certificate B, C and D is "Yes", notice must be given to the tenant(s) of each of the agricultural holdings using a completed copy of the form below.
3. Four copies as the appropriate certificate (B, C or D) overleaf must be submitted to the Council as part of the application for planning permission.
4. It is an offence knowingly or recklessly to put false or misleading information in these forms. Any person doing so may, if convicted, be subject to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

In the notice below please insert the following information

- (a) : address or location of the proposed development
- (b) : applicant's name
- (c) : description of the proposed development
- (d) : a date 21 days after the date of service, or 14 days after the date of publication (if in a newspaper), of the notice.
