Information about the existing use(s)

Please explain why you consider the existing or last use of the land is lawful, or why you consider that any existing buildings, which it is proposed to alter or extend are lawful

The property is an established C3 dwelling house with gardens. The provision of a mobile home within the existing lawful planning unit to provide additional accommodation for a family member as part of one household will not comprise development.

Is the proposed operation or use

- ☒ Permanent
☐ Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

The proposed mobile home unit complies with the legal definition of a caravan in terms of size, assembly and mobility and will be used as additional accommodation to the existing dwelling and as such will not comprise either operational development or a material change of use and is not therefore development within the meaning set out in S.55 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. Please see the planning report and appendices submitted with the application.

Note: in answer to the question in this section of the form concerning the permanency of the use, the reply that it is permanent is given in the context that there is no change of use, the additional accommodation, although temporary in nature, is part and parcel of the single main lawful use as a dwelling house which will continue in perpetuity. Nonetheless the caravan is not intended to be a permanent addition to the land and can be readily simply removed once it is no longer needed.
