Application for certificate of lawfulness

At The Swallow Public House, Long Lane, Hillingdon

Note - This is a re-application which includes a Design & Access Statement. The fee for this application was paid with the original application in March 2009. This fee was retained by London Borough of Hillingdon Planning Services and not returned to the applicant with the original documents.

