Dear Nicola

Thank you for your email.

I have discussed your request for extension of time with the applicant. I can confirm that he is agreeable to extend the application period to 3 December 2015.

I would appreciate if you could let me know why this has to be reported to the committee for consideration, can this not be considered under delegated powers?

Dear Sir

I am hoping to recommend that the application be approved. Should this situation change, I will contact you to advise.

It is my intention to request that the application be considered at the next available meeting of the Central South Planning Committee on 26 November 2015. I would be grateful therefore if you could consider agreeing to an extension of time until 3 December 2015 to enable the application to be considered by committee and for the decision notice to be prepared and sent out.

I look forward to hearing from you

Yours faithfully
