Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

The proposed is considered to comply with Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A of the The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

An extension or addition to a house is considered to be permitted development, not requiring an application for planning permission, subject to the following limits and conditions:

Single-storey rear extensions must not extend beyond the rear wall of the original house by more than four metres if a detached house; or more than three metres for any other house.

No more than half the area of land around the "original house" would be covered by additions or other buildings.

No extension forward of the principal elevation or side elevation fronting a highway.

No extension to be higher than the highest part of the roof.

Maximum height of a single-storey rear extension of four metres.

Maximum eaves height of an extension within two metres of the boundary of three metres.

Maximum eaves and ridge height of extension no higher than existing house.

Side extensions to be single storey with maximum height of four metres and width no more than half that of the original house.

Materials to be similar in appearance to the existing house.

No verandas, balconies or raised platforms.

Upper-floor, side-facing windows to be obscure-glazed; any opening to be 1.7m above the floor.

On Article 2(3) designated land no permitted development for rear extensions of more than one storey.

On Article 2(3) designated land no cladding of the exterior.

On Article 2(3) designated land no side extensions.
