Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

- ☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

This application with reference number of 69570/PRC/2022/28 under the care of case officer Christos Chrysanthou with whom a online meeting took place on 04-07-22 for the following proposed amendments:

1. Additional front door to be removed and replaced with windows.
2. The windows on side elevations to be reduced in size to match existing and set back further to minimise visual impact.
3. Omitting the side facing rear bedroom windows and having one window on the rear elevation.
and setting the side extension back at ground floor level behind the principal elevation.

With the amendments the application was approved with planning reference number as 69570/APP/2022/3401. In addition to the approved application, this application includes hip to gable end loft conversion (involving conversion of roof space to habitual use) and installation of two rooflights to front slope with addition of porticos in existing porch.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
