

PROPOSED SIDE ELEVATION

PROPOSED SIDE ELEVATION

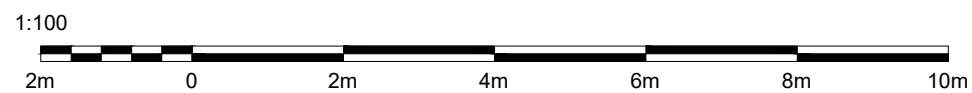

The existing chimney stack is to be carefully dismantled and reconstructed on a like-for-like basis in the proposed position. Reclaimed bricks from the original chimney shall be reused wherever possible to match the existing appearance, colour, texture and bond. Any new materials required shall be carefully selected to ensure a seamless visual match.
The reconstructed chimney shall replicate the existing design, proportions and detailing, including the arched feature, and shall be constructed in accordance with good building practice and relevant structural requirements.
