Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

The proposed porch is considered to comply with Schedule 2, Part 1, Class D of the The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Adding a porch to any external door of your house is considered to be permitted development, not requiring an application for planning permission, provided:

the ground floor area (measured externally) would not exceed three square metres.

no part would be more than three metres above ground level (height needs to be measured in the same way as for a house extension).

no part of the porch would be within two metres of the highway

The proposed steps are considered to comply with Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A of the The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Putting up decking, steps or other raised platforms, in your garden is permitted development, not needing an application for planning permission, providing:

The steps proposed are no more than 30cm above the ground

Together with other extensions, outbuildings etc, the decking or platforms cover no more than 50 per cent of the garden area.
